

We are a deaf family and our children live all over the United States. We try to get together on holidays and communicate via buddy system. it has been like that until VRS came. It was a Godsent gift. We use it almost every day talking to our children and grandchildren. Not only that the interpreter service is so great. Believe me, it is a blessing. Thanks to FCC for making it possible for us deaf people. .